Logan Refuses To Discuss Report Of Experts on Finance

Series of Mishaps Occur at Sabine

AN epidemic of accidents recently occurring at Sabine Pass is brought on today. Ed McFadden, while chopping potatoes in his field, accidentally stabbed himself in his right side. The injury, while painful, is not serious, attending physicians said.

A LITTLE girl was run down by an automobile at the beach last Sunday and painfully and severely injured.

RAYMOND KREBS, while vaulting a rope at the home of his playmate, Harry Vaughn, fell and fractured his wrist, the bone piercing outward through the skin. Physicians at a Beaumont hospital, where he was rushed, said his condition is serious.

A YOUNG man and girl riding a motorcycle on the beach Sunday suffered painful cuts and bruises when the motorcycle skidded on a short turn.

STRIKE BLOCKS LONDON TRAFFIC

Gigantic Subways in Grip Of Communists

LONDON, June 6.—A strike which is believed to be communist, paralyzed London's gigantic network of subways today.

Power house workers in approximately two thirds of the city's plants overruled objections of organized labor leaders and walked out.

Not more than 20 per cent of the electric trains which carry millions of Londoners to work each day were in operation and street cars, buses and cabs were unable to handle the overflow.

Thousands Tramp To Work

Many thousands tramped to work from the suburbs.

The power house workers demand an advance of 20 shillings a week and a minimum wage of three pounds a week, with one week's paid vacation each year.

Labor leaders declared the strike unofficial and charged that communist influences were back of it.

Higher Education Not Responsible For Criminal Trend

HOUSTON, June 6.—Higher education had nothing whatever to do with developing the traits in Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Chicago youths, which caused the brutal murder of Robert Frank.

This is the opinion of Dean Robert G. Caldwell, of Rice Institute.

"The taint of degeneracy, or insanity, or whatever we may call it, does far lack of any education," says Dr. Caldwell. "I take it as just a case of physical and mental degeneracy."

"We have such taints among the educated and the uneducated, among moralists and even ministers. Education cannot eradicate that taint."

DENIES WHISKY COMBINE MADE

Mellon Not to Trade Rum For G. O. P. Funds

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in a letter to the senate Daugherty investigating committee today flatly denied all charges made against him by Gaston B. Means.

Mellon declared Means' account of an alleged agreement entered into with Rex Shelton of New York whereby whisky permits were to have been issued by Mellon in return for contributions to the republican national committee, was untrue.

He also said Means' testimony that he had conferred with former Under Secretary of the Treasury Gilbert about illegal withdrawals of liquor was false.

"CHILDREN'S DAY" AT CONGREGATIONAL

A children's day program will be given at the First Congregational church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The subject of the program is "The Church and the Children." There will be a baptismal service also during the program. All parents interested in having their children baptized are requested by Rev. C. E. Windner, pastor, to notify him before Sunday.

Leaves in Doubt Whether Recommendations To Correct Finance Condition Will Be Followed

Steps to be followed by the city following recommendations in the expert audit report by Hall & Richardson, certified public accountants, was in doubt today.

Mayor Logan declared he had nothing to say regarding the report. "Will you disregard the report," the mayor was asked.

Nothing to Say

"I have nothing to say," the Mayor replied.

Questions which the mayor has been asked to reply to were:

1. Does the council expect to return the contingency fund?

2. From what source will the contingency fund (approximately $10,000 and, diverted to general fund proposed by city council some time ago) be returned, or will it be returned to the city treasury out of the city council's own pockets?

3. What will the city council do about Hall & Richardson's declaration that the city charter provides that expenditures must not exceed the budget?

4. Will the council pay this money from their own pockets?

Mayor Logan had nothing whatever to say, he said, about the report turned in by the expert accountants employed by the city to make a report on the city's financial condition.

Transfer Without Authority

Yesterday, in a supplementary report filed at the city hall, Hall & Richardson stated that transfer of the $10,000 contingency fund was without authority. In their opinion no emergency having arisen to warrant such a transfer.

The report also stated that the city charter provides that the "expenditures must not exceed the budget allowance."

"And the matter is here brought to your attention for whatever action may be deemed necessary," the report filed with the city said.

The city finances are over the budget approximately $42,310.10, according to figures at the city hall.

'HE BEAT ME,' ACTRESS TELLS

Imogene Wilson Takes The Stand Against Comedian

NEW YORK, June 6.—Beautiful Imogene Wilson told on the witness stand today how Frank Tinney, wearing only her silk kimono and a pair of blue ear rings belonging to her negro maid beat her into unconsciousness in her west side flat.

The folksy girl, pale to the dark circles under her tear-filled eyes, sobbed occasionally as she described the night when the famous blackface comedian "practiced boxing on me."

Miss Wilson was a consummate actress as she told her story. No cross questioning by Tinney's lawyers disturbed her calm equilibrium. She had loved Tinney and as she said with a little defiant stare she was going to see to it that no other girl made her mistake.

"I was talking to a reporter, telling him the story of my life when Mr. Tinney came out and passed a remark and the reporter went away."

"Then Frank started to box with me. He hit me on the back of the head where Imogene motioned weakly to show how this had been done and one recognized the rabbit punch" made famous by Firpo) and knocked me down."

"Yes, Dickie," he said, "We quarreled before, but we've always made up. Now when we are facing the home stretch of the greatest pantomime we'll ever run, it is right that we should go along together."

And the boys clasped hands firmly. Their friendship was renewed.

TULANE STUDENTS HOME FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Joe Hegel, Melvin Langridge and Jack Odum have returned from Tulane University at New Orleans where Hegel has been attending the school of commerce, and the latter two have been studying dentistry.

Leonard Prichard, who has been studying at Staunton Military Academy at Staunton, Va., the past year, stopped over in New Orleans on route home and visited with Hegel a few days. They returned to Port Arthur together.

ONLY BANKERS BARRED AS SCHOOL TREASURERS

AUSTIN, June 6.—Granting a mandamus in the case of Gus Jones, treasurer of San Angelo Independent school district against S. M. N. Marx, state superintendent of public instruction, the supreme court today in an opinion from the commission of appeals held that an individual who is not a banker can legally act as treasurer of a school district and receive the funds of the district.

URGENT RELIEF FOR FARMERS

Federal Commission Reports To Senate on Taxes

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Another further reduction in taxation should be planned to relieve farmers, the federal trade commission reported to the senate today in compliance with the Norris resolution asking detailed statistics on taxes, wealth and the ownership of tax exempt securities in the United States.

Taking 1922 for its study, the commission said taxation while high in the north Atlantic, Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast "was most burdensome for agricultural communities particularly in the wheat raising states, which suffered from an unprecedented price decline for their products, while the general price level for the things which they purchased remained high."

Early Swimmers Find Bodies

Baked a Cake, Intended to Attend Beach Party; Headache Saved Her

FATE, by a queer quirk of circumstance, kept the death list maximum in the McFadden beach tragedy to five. How close the deaths came to mounting to six was revealed this morning by Mrs. L. B. Broussard, 704 Sixth street, scheduled to have been one of the fatal swimming party last night.

Mrs. Broussard, neighbor and close friend of Mrs. Randall Bonnette, with her husband drowned last night, told this morning between sobs at the morgue how she and Mrs. Bonnette yesterday afternoon planned the swimming party.

"I helped Mrs. Bonnette bake a cake yesterday afternoon. It was so sultry we decided to make up a small party of friends and go to the beach for a swim until bedtime. We hurried through our work and baked a cake and other things we intended to eat that night. About 4 in the afternoon I was struck with a severe headache. In an hour's time I had to go to bed."

"The swimming party came by for me shortly after five and I tried to persuade myself I was able to go. My headache was so severe I gave up the idea and went back to bed. Now my friends are drowned," Mrs. Broussard said, weeping.

M'Kinley Credentials Chief When G. O. P. Swings Into Action

YOUTHS UNDER INDICTMENTS

Loeb, Leopold Clasp Hands After Wrangle

CHICAGO, June 6.—Indictments against Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, formally charging them with murdering Robert Frank, 14-year-old school boy, were returned in open court today.

The indictments, which were voted last Thursday by the Cook county grand jury, accuse the two sons of millionaires with kidnaping Frank on ransom wage with the actual murder of the youth. Both charges carry death penalties.

Although looked upon as a certainty and a mere formality ever since Leopold and Loeb confessed, the indictments represent the actual start of the state's effort to convict and hang the two young intellectuals, who "just for the fun of it," they said, murdered young Frank and attempted to collect $10,000 ransom from his father. The boys now must stand trial on the two charges.

Bitterness Dispersed

The two boys, bitter toward each other since the day they confessed, have "made up." The friendship that carried during early boyhood; the comradeship that carried them through college days and carried them into crime, has drawn them back together again.

They have been in separate cells but have had plenty of opportunity to be together during recreation hours. Each has shunned the other, however, and accused the other of responsibility for the murder.

It was Loeb, softer and more reserved, who first broke the long, bitter silence. He went up to Leopold and said:

"What the hell's the use? We're both in the same ride and so we might as well ride together, Babe."

Leopold looked straight into the eyes of Loeb then lowered his gaze to the floor. He shuffled his feet in embarrassment.

"Yes, Dickie," he said, "We quarreled before, but we've always made up. Now when we are facing the home stretch of the greatest pantomime we'll ever run, it is right that we should go along together."

And the boys clasped hands firmly. Their friendship was renewed.

JOHN GILBERT, AGE 50, DEAD

Prominent Beaumont Lumberman Dies After Attack

BEAUMONT, Texas, June 6.—John M. Gilbert, aged 50, and a resident of Beaumont for nearly 30 years, died at his late residence, 132 Calder avenue Thursday night.

At the time of his death, Mr. Gilbert was president of the Neen Mills Lumber company, a director of the first National bank and a stockholder in various local oil and cattle enterprises.

He had just returned from a visit with his daughter Mrs. Charles B. of Los Angeles and suffered an attack of indigestion on the trip home. He was not believed to be in any danger, however, and his death last night was entirely unexpected.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Laura Gilbert and three children, Harvey and Wilbur Gilbert of this city and Mrs. Charles Butler of Los Angeles, California. Another son, John Gilbert died here in 1918.

Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed, but will probably be under the auspices of the Catholic lodge of which he was a member. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a Knight Templar, a member of the First Methodist church, the Beaumont Country Club, the Beaumont and Neches clubs.

GIRL DISCOVERS BEACH TRAGEDY

Cries Brings Early Morning Swimmers to Shore

FIND SONNIE FIRST

Three Bodies Found Within 15 Feet of Each Other

First intimation that a tragedy had occurred at McFadden's beach last night was found at 6 o'clock this morning by two young men and two young women who went to the beach for an early morning swim.

Douglas Sanders and Don Reece, the two young men on the early morning swimming party, said they entered the water and struck out at once to where it is deep. Sanders said one of the young women decided not to go in the water and stayed on the beach.

Find Sonnier's Body

After being in the water about 15 minutes and swimming out with his three companions quite a distance from shore the girl on the beach began waving frantically and crying out that a corpse was on the beach.

Sanders said this information had been given the young lady by some people, men and women in a cove who appeared frightened. He said he disregarded the girl's cry, thinking she was joking.

Reece, according to Sanders, swam back, however, and cried out soon that there was a corpse on the beach about 200 yards away. Sanders said he struck in for shore with his girl companion and with Reece raced down to the corpse. The body of Sonnier was the first discovered.

It was directly on the beach in front of the hotel.

"Sonnier," Sanders said, "was lying on his face with about three feet of his body in the water."

County Jail Turns School House As Prisoners Study

KALAMAZOO, Mich., June 6.—The county jail today became a classroom as a score of high school students, either held or sentenced in connection with charges by night school girls, studied for their final examinations.

The boys brought their books with them, determined to pass regardless of their present difficulties.

One boy, who has been on probation for a statutory offense, was sentenced to the reformatory at Lions for from 1 to 10 years.

Garland Bush, star track captain, was sentenced to 45 days in the county jail for contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl.

REBELS MARCH ON ALBANIANS

Casualties Exceed 1,000 In Fighting at Tirana

LONDON, June 6.—Batalefeld's before Tirana, the Albanian capital, are strewn with dead, the casualties exceeding 1,000, according to an Athens dispatch to the Daily Express today, quoting Brusa advice.

The Albanian nationalist revolution and drive for the capital is being carried on with desperate fighting, the report says. In fighting around Tirana scores of dead lie where they fell.

The nationalists are accused of capturing government soldiers, hating them up and executing them in batches of five in the presence of the remainder.

NOT GUILTY

Cook County Jury Frees Pretty Divorcee

CHICAGO, June 6.—Mrs. Bevil Gaertner, pretty divorcee, accused of the "hip con" murder of Walter Law on March 12, was acquitted early today by a jury in the Cook county court. Eight ballots were required to reach a verdict.

"Laws" body was found in Mrs. Gaertner's sedan, and police who traced her through the license number found blood soaked garments in her apartment.

When arrested she told a story of having slipped a coin with Law to see which should take a shot at the other. Later she said she was "drunk, she didn't remember" whether she shot him or not.

No Witnesses To Tragedy of Deep Located Today

Last Seen at 5:30 or 6 o'clock Thursday Afternoon Attempting to Catch Alligator on Sabine Road—Surf Unusually High, Say Seiners of Late Afternoon Tide

THE DEAD: MR. AND MRS. RANDALL BONNETTE, 748 1-2 Sixth street.

Miss Adele Montagne, 17, daughter of Frank Montagne, 615 Eighth street.

Komer Sonnier, about 28, employed at the Chinese restaurant, in the 100 block on Procter street.

The Gulf added another to its unsolved mysteries of the deep late last night when four, probably five, Port Arthur people were swept to their deaths.

So far as has been learned there were no witnesses to the tragedy.

The hero's role essayed by one of more in probable rain attempts to save the lives of companions in distress must forever go unheralded, it was believed today as hour after hour passed and no particulars could be obtained as to the manner of the victims' passing.

Then, have snatched away the lives of its victims the waters, as though following a capricious whim, cast them up again, three of them within fifteen feet of each other.

The fifth member of the party, Teddy Carlson, Jr., son of Captain T. Carlson, 1735 Eighth street, missing at a late hour this afternoon, has been given up as lost by friends and relatives.

Heavy Undertow

Into the gulf, rolling and booming in playful mood, was the "happy" party of 16 men and women. Beneath the splashing waves, right and frolic with foam, lurked a powerful, undertow. Like a great pendulum, moving with incredible power, so the tide ebbed and flowed under the beachers.

One member of the party, perhaps all, went into a sand bar, their depth. Laughter turned to screams of terror, fright and calls for help. Doubtless the men in the party, all good swimmers, struggled in vain to rescue the two women. But darkness of late twilight hid their heroic deeds and death struggles from other beachers and crowds on shore. Their cries and screams were lost in the booming surf.

Another theory of how the men and women were lost is that they waded out too far and were unable to return against the ebbing tide, were carried out far into the gulf and sank exhausted. A Port Arthur today recalled how he struggled for two hours one night with his wife and two other companions against a swiftly ebbing tide before they reached the beach, to sink on the sands exhausted.

HOPE REVIVED, IS SHATTERED

Mrs. Sonnier Stricken After Assurance Husband Lived

The samst of deepest sorrow and heart anguish was run this morning by Mrs. L. Sonnier, wife of Komer Sonnier.

She at first was notified to expect the worst, when told her husband was safe; finally to again have the fatal news, this time definitely, told her that her husband was dead.

Mrs. Sonnier is employed at the Rome Laundry. She cooked breakfast and her usual morning chores and started to work. She was then informed by white-faced neighbors that her husband probably was one of the several reported drowned at the beach. Mrs. Sonnier was terrified and would not believe her husband was one of the dead.

Told Her Husband Was Alive

She then was told by a comforting neighbor a few minutes later that it was Teddy Carlson who had drowned and not her husband. Another informed Mrs. Sonnier her husband had been seen during the night and did not go on the swimming party.

A great load lifted from her heart, the little woman hurried to her work with her heart smoldering secure in the firm belief her husband had been spared her and would drop in and talk to her sometime during the morning.

When the death cars of the Grammer undertaking company pulled up with their cargo of drowned victims, one of the first bodies to be unloaded was that of Sonnier.

"His wife thinks he is safe and it will break her heart," whispered some of the neighbors.

PROTESTS LOAN TOMEXICANS

Plan Unfavorable, Reports U. S. Ambassador

SAN ANTONIO, June 6.—Mexico's efforts to obtain a loan with which to pay interest on its debt do not look favorable, said Charles R. Warren, United States ambassador to Mexico on his arrival here on route to Cleveland. Mr. Warren said, when asked if he would accept the vice presidential nomination of the republican ticket that he would not. He said that he had been here ever, there is no foundation for the report that he intends to resign as ambassador.

"Mrs. Warren is still in Mexico, and I shall return there after the Cleveland convention is ended," he said.

He left today for St. Louis.

FORMER GOVERNOR OF MEXICO IN HOUSTON

HOUSTON, June 6.—Jorge Prieto Laurens, former governor of the state of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, is now a resident of Houston. He achieved the governorship at the age of 30 after a stormy career as presiding officer of the national congress.

When the revolution broke out, Laurens cast his lot with De La Huerta and commanded revolutionary forces at Vera Cruz. With the decline of the revolution, Laurens moved to Progresso with De La Huerta and was en route to Galveston for a political conference at the time Progresso fell.

ALLEGED ASSAILANT OF MAIDEN HELD

SAN ANTONIO, June 6.—A man answering the description of the assailant of a 15-year-old crippled girl here last Sunday has been detained at Stockdale, according to messages to the sheriff's office here. The girl was criminally assaulted Sunday while on her way home from Sunday school. Citizens captured the man and turned him over to police, who permitted him to enter his room for some articles, when he escaped.

Hull to Use Largest Cast Here In "The Awakening"

30 Additional Girls Needed Tonight; Part of Principal Cast Selected For Show

Thirty more girls than were used in "The Awakening" when Knights of the Ku Klux Klan presented that stupendous performance in Beaumont will be used by the producer, Jimmy Hull, when the entertainment is presented for critical Port Arthur and theater goers, Hull said today.

"We need 30 additional girls—we want the prettiest there are to be in Port Arthur, and we want them to be young," Hull said today.

"The girls for the cast are being chosen in a Rio Zeigfield style. In other words, Hull says, they must be plump, sweet and pretty."

Partial Cast Chosen

A partial list of the principal cast which takes the leading roles in "The Awakening" had its initial meeting last night in Elks theater, this list including Miss Francis Carter and Miss Marie LaFayette, both of whom will be featured in the presentation. L. A. Patton, whose blackface work in the American Legion show at "Bones" last year will be remembered by all who saw him, Bert Hughes, well-known business man of the city and who has been featured in home talent performances too numerous to mention, Neil Rader, Tom Lamb and R. H. Jeremiah, Jeremiah was featured in Hull's "Fifth Annual Lion Musical Revue" last year.

Others are to be selected at once, Hull said today, and will be given their roles upon selection.

Scenery Being Arranged

All scenery and other accessories for "The Awakening" are being arranged as rapidly as the producer can superintend their arrival and construction, and the present indications are that Port Arthur will put on a bigger better show than did Beaumont.

Lamb, who will take part in the local presentation of "The Awakening" was one of the leading characters in the attraction when it played in Beaumont, and has a unique personality for the stage and its lights, according to Hull. He will entertain the Port Arthur theater fans considerably in the producers' production.

All Port Arthurians interested in the chorus work are urged to report at the theater tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

RESULTS WERE LASTING SAYS JOS. P. HARDING

Tanlac Restored Cornicana Man To Health Seven Years Ago

"About the best thing I could say for Tanlac is that I am still enjoying the good health it brought me six or seven years ago," recently declared Jos. P. Harding, 210 W. 4th Ave., Corsicana, Texas. Mr. Harding further said:

"I am now 70 years old, weigh 160 lbs., and enjoy perfect health. To have no physical ailments and feel so strong and well at that age is certainly something to be thankful for and I just can't praise Tanlac too highly."

"Before I got on to Tanlac my appetite had left me. I was away down in weight, was extremely nervous and had very little strength or energy. As I was getting along in years I didn't know but what my ailments indicated a general decline."

"But in a few days after I began taking Tanlac I started to come right back and then I knew that all I needed was the right medicine for my case. Five or six bottles of Tanlac fired me up with a dandy appetite, set my nerves in order, brought back my strength and added ten pounds to my weight."

"Tanlac just about made me over, you might say, and I feel good enough now to go out and do the old work of farming and saw milling again. My advice to anyone who can't eat or sleep right and feels run-down, is TAKE TANLAC. It sure will build them up and make them feel like new."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Avoid No. Substitutes. Over 40 Million Bottles Sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are made and recommended by the Manufacturers of TANLAC.—Adv.

KLAN MEMBERS ANNOUNCE BLOC

Defeated Convention, Rally To Jackson

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 6.—Belligerent members of the Ku Klux Klan today announced their intention of bolting the democratic party and rallying to the support of Ed Jackson, republican candidate for governor, as an aftermath to their defeat in the democratic state convention here yesterday.

Delegates to the convention nominated Dr. O. F. McCulloch, plurality winner in the party primary and avowed anti-klan candidate, for the

LOUISIANA DELEGATES TO GO UNINSTRUCTED

BATON ROUGE, La., June 6.—Louisiana's four delegates at large to the democratic national convention in New York will go uninstructed. This was decided on at the state democratic convention here last night which elected Governor Henry L. Pugh, former Governor J. Y. Sanders, Martin Behrman and former Governor E. G. Pleasant as delegates at large.

The convention bowed to the efforts of a district delegate to place the state convention on record as opposed to the Ku Klux Klan.

governorship. They also adopted a platform plank which was decidedly anti-klan in sentiment.

Required strength of the Klan bloc in the convention failed to materialize.

Approve Dawes Plan On Hun Reparations

BERLIN, June 6.—The German reichstag today formally approved the action of the government in accepting the Dawes plan as a basis for settlement of the reparations problem.

The parliament adopted a resolution approving the experts' plan with only slight reservation including revision of Ruhr prisoners and repatriation of those expelled from the occupied zones because of sabotage against the Franco-Belgian occupation.

TIDAL WAVES ON PERU COAST

Ships Reported Sunk And Towns Flooded

By United Press.
LIMA, Peru, June 6.—Ships were sunk, towns flooded and several lives believed lost as result of a tidal wave which swept the Peruvian littoral Thursday.
A huge wall of water swept down the coast towns driving vessels on the rocks and swamping many small craft.
The German barkentine Lemberhaven of Hamburg capsized before the force of the wave at Ottao, and her captain was drowned. The Norwegian bark Flong was driven on the rocks and was a total loss at Chancay.

DRINK AND DANCE
NEW YORK, June 6.—A new drink reported to be popular in the more remote parts of the Republic of Colombia has a desire to fight in the waters of the region, according to Dr. H. H. Rusby of the New York College of Pharmacy. The effect of the drink on white men, however, is to make them wish to dance, Dr. Rusby says.

Amusements

FRIDAY
Peoples: "The Love Master."
Hearts: "The Phantom."
Sund: "The Eleventh Hour."
Liberty: "The Fashionable Fakers."
Garden Airplane: Ferguson Bros Stock Company.

SATURDAY
Peoples: "The Love Master."
Hearts: Douglas MacLean in "Going Up."
Sund: "The Eleventh Hour."
Liberty: Jack Hoxie in "The Phantom Horseman."

Garden Airplane: "The Cowboy and the Thief."
Green Tree: "This Freedom."

AMATEUR NIGHT AT AIRDOME
The Cowboy and the Thief, a drama of life on the Texas plains, was the offering of the Ferguson Brothers at the Garden Airplane last night before a large house. The play was well received, judging by the applause rendered by the audience. It was in four acts and the scenic inventiveness were good.

Edward Ferguson played the romantic cowboy who was in love but too bashful to declare himself with force. Miss Gertrude Wood as the girl was very winsome and looked charming in her western outfit. Albert Ferguson stuttered his way through laughter in the part of the stuttering cowboy. Miss Frances Simms was a true squaw. Cassie Tomlinson, Chie Keboe, Robert Simms and Clyde Armstrong all contributed largely toward the success of the entertainment.

Tonight another amateur contest will be held. Quite a number of contestants have registered, but the big novelty of the evening will be the bull fight that will be fought on the stage, claimed by Ferguson to be the very first legitimate bull fight to be exhibited on any stage in the United States. Ferguson Brothers have made arrangements with two matadors and several picadors to fight this ferocious bull, and Port Arthur theatergoers have been promised an exhibition of what the national sport of Spain is like.

JACK HOSIE CRIMING
Jack Hoxie, Universal cowboy star, will gallop across the screen in another of the dashing roles for which he is famous in "The Phantom Horseman," his latest feature at the Liberty theater Saturday.

In this picture, the athletic western star is said to eclipse former roles of heroism in the wild west which he stages through the barren hills which flank the Mojave desert in Southern California. It is not fundamentally a thrill picture, carrying a well balanced story and dramatic theme, but Hoxie without brilliant riding would disappoint the picture fans who have followed the trail for the cowboy screen player for many years.

It is the story of a community in the southwestern range country which is plagued by the marauding of a mysterious night rider, a hawk of the range, a rustler and stagecoach bandit. Hoxie has the role of a young cattleman who is elected sheriff with the promise to end the exploits of the mysterious bandit. By an inadvertent force of circumstances the youthful sheriff becomes involved in a situation which makes it appear that he is the night rider whom he has sworn to get.

Latest News From Louisiana Towns

LAKE CHARLES, La.—Plans for the opening of a furniture and coffin factory in this city have gotten underway. The new concern is being organized by A. Cameron, A. A. Bee, officials in the Chamber of Commerce, and W. L. Vining, general manager of the chamber of commerce. Cameron is manager of the Lake Charles Plating mill. Manufacture of box caskets and coffins will be started as soon as suitable machinery can be assembled.

COLUMBIA, La.—Yesterday Carr, of Mount Pleasant, struck by lightning last Monday and was reported in this section as having died from the effects, has recovered, but has been left with an affliction which causes him to suffer intensely from heat.

LAKE CHARLES, La.—A new police jury, with H. G. Chalkley, president, and E. H. Henry, clerk, and parish treasurer, now in charge of affairs for Calcasieu parish. One of the first official acts of the new jury was to order an audit made of the parish books during the past four years.

VILLE PLATTE, La.—Euzeba Vidrine, confessed slayer of J. L. Vizzini, Jr., son of the sheriff of Evangeline parish, was sentenced to be hanged, and date of his execution will be set by Governor Fugate. Vidrine asked the judge that his body be turned over to his brother, and announced that he would immediately commence writing a book on his life, to be published after his death.

Three mysterious deaths in Southern Louisiana have been charged to Vidrine, but he has denied responsibility for them. Vidrine has requested the court to furnish him with an assistant to help prepare the book, as he is of limited education. Officials believe it possible some startling disclosures will be made in the book.

By Samuel Hoffenstein

Darling, if you'll marry me,

How contented I shall be—

From the heaven of my home

Nothing but my thoughts shall roam.

The girl I left behind me,

I have faced from my mind.

I hope she'll never find me,

And always stay behind.

She wasn't sweet or pretty,

Or bright or wise or gay;

That's why I'm in the city,

And she is in the hay.

I want to go down to the beach again

And watch the folks go swimming.

For that is the place where men are

And the women sure are women.

A woman pleases another woman

By admiring her hat. She offends

Her by getting one like it.

A SUCCESSFUL PLATFORM

For years he had been a reform candidate. He had fought in every campaign for the good old-fashioned

American institutions. His speeches always got great applause, but he had never been elected.

The situation was desperate. He had never learned any useful trade.

This time he did some thinking. And, in his small way, he proved himself a genius.

This was the platform he ran on:

"I believe in bobbed hair."

He was elected.

Dr. Frank Crane's Editorial

THE GENTLEMAN VALUES

The gentleman values are the strongest in the world.

Because the gentleman is first of all a man. He is not a milk-op. The gentleman is unafraid. As a rule the blunderer and the bully is a coward at heart.

The gentleman is quiet. He knows that power is silent; it is the waste from power that makes a noise. The steam in the locomotive that pulls the train, cannot be heard; that which hisses and whistles is the escape.

You cannot be a gentleman without imagination. You must be able to think yourself into the other man's feeling.

The gentleman doesn't hurry. He may move swiftly but his eye is always on the speedometer; he knows how fast he is going.

The gentleman never loses self-control. And no man who can't control himself can control others.

The gentleman keeps the rules of the game. He doesn't cheat nor strike below the belt.

The gentleman respects himself. He others respect him.

The gentleman is not self seeking.

He seeks honors seek him.

The gentleman minds his own business. He does not meddle. That is why others listen to him when he speaks and rely upon him when he promises.

The gentleman is a good loser. He does not boast when he gains and does not whine when fortune turns against him. You have a feeling for the gentleman. You have a feeling for both to your praise and your blame.

Not that he is egotistic but that,

after all, it is his own praise and blame that he values and fears.

The gentleman seeks justice; the half civilized man seeks vengeance.

The gentleman treats his superiors with dignity and his inferiors with courtesy.

The gentleman shrinks from bringing the feelings of any human being or causing pain to any animal.

The gentleman may appropriate fame and value admiration but he does not have the itch for notoriety.

The gentleman feels ashamed when he is praised for that which he does not deserve.

The gentleman's desire is to be great; the brawler's desire is to be called great.

The gentleman is more particular about his character than about his reputation. The gentleman is not known by his uniform; you can tell a gentleman in the clothes of a hooligan as readily as in the clothes of a head waiter.

The gentleman is courteous but not servile; quiet but not weak;

strong but not obstreperous; self-respecting but not proud; fair minded but not indifferent.

Miss Nettie Taylor, Bride-Elect, Tendered Miscellaneous Shower

MISS NETTIE TAYLOR, whose marriage to Mr. Harold A. Roney of Chicago will take place Sunday evening, was complimented with a charmingly arranged miscellaneous shower yesterday afternoon, which had as hostesses Mrs. G. W. Whitmore, and Mrs. Charles Hanson at the former's home, 1230 Sixth street.

The home was attractively adorned with a profusion of lovely daisies, featuring an artistic motif of gold and white, which was displayed in all details of the gracious hospitality.

The shower proved a most delightful surprise to Miss Taylor, who arrived at the Whitmore home after the guests were assembled there. She was further mystified when they told her to follow the trail of a white ribbon and bring whatever she found back to them. After following the ribbon through numerous rooms, Miss Taylor found a prettily decorated basket attached to the end of the ribbon and after opening it found many beautiful gifts as loving tributes from her many admiring friends.

Social conversations gave diversion during the late afternoon hours, following which a delectable ice course featuring the chosen motif, was offered.

The personnel of the shower included in addition to Miss Taylor, included Mrs. James T. Yardley, Mrs. Charles Hurley, Jr., Miss Eula Smith, Miss Violet Turgeon of Berwick, La., Mrs. John H. Stevenson, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mrs. F. N. Ragsdale, Mrs. E. C. Kuhlman, Miss Emma Thompson, Mrs. Kyle Elam, Mrs. H. H. Taylor, of Port Neches, Mrs. Laura McFarland, Mrs. Roland Lawrence, Mrs. M. T. Conner, Mrs. A. McFarland, Mrs. R. L. Rutan, Mrs. S. J. Taylor, and the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Hanson and Mrs. G. W. Whitmore.

AUXILIARY CIRCLES MEET WEDNESDAY

Circle One of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Memorial Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. J. Duggan at her home, 730 Ninth street. The lesson study on "Aims" was conducted by Mrs. Duggan and the devotional service was led by Mrs. S. J. Rollins.

Those in attendance were Mrs. Weaver, Miss Willie Mae Weaver, Mrs. J. N. McKinney, Mrs. N. Collins, Mrs. Forrest and Mrs. J. J. Duggan.

Circle One will meet next week with Mrs. J. H. McKinney at her home, 730 Ninth street.

Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain was hostess to Circle Two Wednesday afternoon at her home, 601 Fifteenth street.

Circle One of the Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church will hold a rummage sale on Houston avenue in the lobby of the Louisiana Commission tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The proceeds of the rummage sale will go toward the church building fund.

Mrs. Robinson is visiting here. Mrs. W. A. Robinson and children of Calumet, Okla., arrived in the city last night for a visit with Mrs. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chambers, of 1312 Sixth street.

Mrs. T. L. Fortie returns home. Mrs. T. L. Fortie and little son, T. L. Jr., of 2301 Tenth street have returned after spending three weeks with relatives and friends in Tyler, Lindale and Mineola.

Miss Patrick leaves city. Miss Heare Patrick, who has been attending school here the past year, left yesterday for her home in Memphis, Tenn. En route to Memphis she will visit with relatives and friends in Dallas. Miss Patrick, while in Port Arthur, made her home with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Corley of 1332 Seventh street.

On next Thursday Circle Nine will again meet at Mrs. Corbell's home, at which time the town and pillow race for the Bessie Sanitarium in Houston will be collected.

DR. AND MRS. WALL HAS GUEST. Miss Margaret Zor of Houston is visiting Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wall of 1359 Eighth street.

Circle Nine holds meet. Mrs. Joe Corbell entertained Circle Nine of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at her home, 3301 Procter street.

Following the devotional service the study book, "Stewardship and Missions," was completed and a business session was held with Mrs. J. J. Caston presiding. A social hour followed and delicious refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. D. J. Caston, Mrs. A. E. Coler, Mrs. T. K. Furlow, Mrs. J. Ellerbe, Mrs. G. M. Stewart, Mrs. C. Nowlin, Mrs. Z. M. French of Beaumont and Mrs. Joe Corbell.

On next Thursday Circle Nine will again meet at Mrs. Corbell's home, at which time the town and pillow race for the Bessie Sanitarium in Houston will be collected.

DR. AND MRS. WALL HAS GUEST. Miss Margaret Zor of Houston is visiting Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wall of 1359 Eighth street.

France Selected Them

In a Paris competition the above ladies were awarded prizes for the best types of brunet and blonde beauty. Miss Frea, left, was selected from 500, as the loveliest brunet and Miss Sargent (right) was winner in the blonde class.

Surprise Party Given Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Logsdon, whose marriage was an interesting event of recent date, Mrs. William Nickels and Mrs. W. J. Milne entertained with a delightful surprise shower Wednesday evening at Mrs. Nickels' home, 1032 Procter street.

The home was prettily decorated with a profusion of early summer blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon were invited to spend the evening at the Nickels home, and arriving there were surprised to see so many of their friends assembled in their honor.

Conversation gave diversion during the evening, and delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon received many attractive gifts from their admiring friends, the gifts being presented to the honor guests in an attractively decorated basket by Mrs. Nickels.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stinner, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Milner, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. R. T. Marston, Mrs. Ed Lamb, Mrs. Ella Palmer, Mrs. William Cooke, Mrs. Jewell Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Boatner, Mrs. William Nickels and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Logsdon.

MRS. J. B. SAINT HAS HOUSE GUEST. Mrs. T. F. Ferris of Chicago will arrive in the city today for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Saint, 2005 Lake Shore drive. Mrs. Ferris is en route from California to her home in Chicago.

DETROIT MAKES TRIP TO HOUSTON POSSIBLE. Tourists anticipating an overland trip to Houston are advised to make the trip within the next 24 hours as road conditions are expected to be impassable for a time thereafter because of a probable rise in the San Jacinto river. W. T. Dick, who has just returned in his car from Houston said this morning.

Heretofore the road has been reported impassable.

A detour between Barber's Hill and Lynchburg is recommended. The ferry at Lynchburg will operate until midnight Thursday, Dick was advised.

Roads are bad beyond Houston, according to reports.

ALL-OVER LACE. All-over lace is combined with organdy or made over an organdy slip instead of silk or crepe, and is thus quite appropriate for afternoon.

BLACK AND WHITE. A wrap-around skirt of black and white flannel is most attractive with a sleeveless jacket of plain black flannel and a blouse of white silk broadcloth.

WORN ON SHOULDER. Flowers worn on the shoulder with evening and dinner frocks are very attractive. Orchids and roses lend themselves best to such decorative purposes.

PARTY LEAVES FOR HOT SPRINGS. A party, comprised of Mrs. J. E. Grammer, her mother, Mrs. J. M. Manman, Mrs. W. W. Glass and little son, Walter William Glass, left this morning for a month's holiday visit in Hot Springs, Ark.

MRS. ROBINSON ENTERTAINS. Mrs. D. W. Robinson entertained a few friends Wednesday with a delightful spend-the-day-party at her home, 2020 Thirtieth street.

Those enjoying the pleasing affair were Mrs. A. Wilson, Miss Lucille Moore, Miss Ruth Sued, Mrs. F. J. Need, Mrs. J. L. Wingo, Mrs. C. L. Goens, Mrs. E. T. Han, Mrs. V. J. Hanchard, Mrs. J. Dunlap and Mrs. D. W. Robinson.

MISS LOUISE ALLISON LEAVES FOR AUSTIN. Miss Louise Allison of Houston, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wall of 1509 Eighth street, left yesterday for a month's visit in Austin and San Marcos. She was accompanied by Misses Katherine and Eleanor Wall.

LETTER FROM BEATRICE GRIMSHAW TO SALLY ATHERTON. MY DEAR SALLY: They say that however much a person inclines to secrecy, there is always a desire for self-expression to some one—some one with whom to share one's inmost thoughts, some one to whom one may recount one's adventures, some sympathetic person of whose interest one is always sure.

With me, dear Sally, this is you. Perhaps this is why I care so much for you, though you will forgive me when I say that I do not always approve of you. Sometimes you quite shock my old-fashioned, mid-Victorian ideas; and I am quite ashamed of myself in this particular, for I know you always sympathize with mine, however much contempt you have for me.

I know, dear friend, that you will feel a return of some of that contempt when I tell you that some weeks ago I again wrote to Dick. I had determined never to write to him again, but I received a letter from him in which he told me that after all he had come to the conclusion that I was the one woman in his life.

I did not know whether I should laugh or cry over this letter—it was so like Dick who, with the usual masculine arrogance, thought he had only to ask anything of me to receive it quickly. Finally, however, I wrote him that I did not intend to put myself in a position where he could again hurt me as he had done. I know, dear Sally, that you would never have acknowledged that you had been hurt.

You would have decided then and there, after receiving the first letter, that he was unworthy of your love and forgotten him, for I know that you have that modern spirit, of which I spoke to Dick, a spirit which says: "I will love you as long as you love me, and not one moment longer." Not having this spirit, I told Dick that I didn't know just exactly what I was going to do—just how I was going to answer his question; and when I had decided I would write him again, I am telling you all this because I want your opinion on Dick's letter, parts of which I am going to quote you; and I had to give you some explanation of the things which led up to it.

Dick is very contrite, and he says that he has missed me; and honestly, Sally, I believe he has missed me quite as much as I have missed him. I have always known that I was his balance wheel; he confesses that he was infatuated with Paula Perier at first, but he seems to have found out that infatuation is not love. He still insists that Paula Perier is a very sweet woman and that they are great friends—more than ever since they have had some sort of an understanding between them—an understanding which he did not explain.

In this letter he asked me only to allow him to love me, to try and bring back my faith and trust in him. Sally, do you think that once having lost faith and trust in a man you can ever get it back again?

Your bewildered friend, BEE. (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

TOMORROW: Letter from John Alden Prescott to Leslie Prescott.

Négligee Girl Shocks Court in San Tene. SAN ANTONIO, June 6.—Judge Union, corporation court, is considering purchase of a municipal kimono. His honor was amazed when a fair defendant was brought before him in negligee to plead guilty to a charge of drunkenness. Gone was her outer clothing, torn off in a fight. One look at the high-heeled slippers, the silk stockings, the teddies and brassiere and the judge blushing announced a $5 fine.

The spectators thought he rushed proceedings unduly.

OIL PIPELINE REPORT. AUSTIN, Texas, June 6.—Oil gathered by pipelines in Texas during April totaled 12,258,251 barrels, according to the railroad commission's monthly statement. The largest quantity of oil was taken from Navarro county, 3,310,439 barrels. Wichita county was second with 2,005,175 barrels and Limestone county third, 1,668,315 barrels.

Mrs. E. L. Thomas To Be Buried in Silsbee

Mrs. Ania Thomas, 27, wife of F. L. Thomas, of 2727 11th street, died Thursday at the family residence after a brief illness. Mrs. Thomas was a native of Kirksville, Texas, and for the past five years had made her home in Port Arthur. Arrangements were being made late today for shipping the body to Silsbee, Texas, Friday under the direction of J. E. Grammer, undertaker, and burial will be made there. Besides the husband, relatives here and at Silsbee survive Mrs. Thomas.

HER HEAD NEVER ACHES ANY MORE

Relief Obtained by Taking Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. "Since taking Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup my head never aches at all," said Mrs. Isadora Ch. Barquez, 2215 S. Laredo Street, San Antonio, Texas.

"My sufferings were brought on by stomach trouble. After eating I would feel like I was burning up inside, then these awful headaches would nearly run me wild and I would get so nervous I could hardly sleep. I had no appetite, didn't relish a thing and at times would get so dizzy I would almost fall."

"Soon after starting on Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup I began to pick up my weight and after taking it for several months all my troubles are gone."

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is sold by all druggists and if you are not satisfied the purchase price will be refunded.—Adv.

Busy Housewife Turns Her Attention to Preserving Products of Garden and Shrub

HELPFUL HINTS FOR PRESERVING

Mechanical Side Unimportant

When the garden begins to grow green, and fruit trees, berry bushes and the like show promise of good things to come, then the housewife begins to prepare for harvesting these gifts of nature. While the housewife is not called on to use the mechanical side of her preserving, it is not without its mechanical side. The utensils in which the fruits and vegetables are cooked, the implements used in handling them and the containers in which they are finally stored away are all of great importance.

The experienced housewife knows very well that she must have utensils which have a surface not affected by the acids in the fruit, and therefore she knows how invaluable is her enameled ware preserving kettle, with its sanitary, clean, acid-proof surface. If she is fortunate, she will have three sizes of preserving kettles in commission. A small size saucepan, which should be kept entirely for use in the preserving process, is most useful for boiling down syrups or making small quantities of jams from left-overs. Add to these a medium size, and a large one, and several long-handled spoons, and the mechanical end of preserving is provided for. To keep fruit after cooking is as good as glass jars with light-sew-down tops.

A String Bean Sweet Pickle. In the making of sweet pickles, the enameled ware preserving kettle is indispensable. Its porcelain surface makes it safe to use with even the strongest vinegar, and no matter how long the pickles may be in the cooking their natural color will not be altered.

Try this year a little known sweet pickle made of very tiny string beans. Pick the beans when not over an inch and a half in length. Trim off each end. Place in an enameled ware preserving kettle and cover with sugar in the proportion of one cup of sugar to one of the beans. Then pour on any good vinegar until the beans are covered. Bring quickly to a boil and skim with an enameled ware skimmer. Then cook slowly, adding whole cloves, a few allspice and a small quantity of stick cinnamon. These spices may be left in the jam with the pickles, or may be skimmed out. The pickle is equally good either. It is only a question of taste.

A New Rhubarb Recipe. Rhubarb is the first spring trophy for the enameled ware preserving kettle. For housewives who find the plain rhubarb too acid for the palates of their household, there have been devised various rhubarb compotes. These are very good in themselves, as jam, and make excellent filling for fruit pies and tarts.

One of these is made of rhubarb and prunes. Cut the rhubarb into inch pieces and place in an enameled ware preserving kettle. Soak the prunes all night, or until soft. Remove the stems from the prunes, add the prunes to the rhubarb. The proportion should be one cup of stoned prunes to two cups of rhubarb. Add just enough cold water to keep the fruit from burning and cook slowly over a moderate fire. When well-cooked, add sugar in the proportion of one cup of sugar to three cups of the mixture. Cook until all is a smooth jam. As a variation of this, sliced bananas may be added.

Here's What to Eat and—

Lose Weight

Gain Weight

One cup clam broth, 4 tablespoons creamed spinach on toast with 1 poached egg, 4 button radishes, 6 ounces of fish in pungent sauce, 4 tablespoons beet greens, 1-2 cup shredded cabbage, 2 tablespoons pineapple, 2 macaroni, 1 pint skimmed milk, 3 toasted bread sticks, 1 whole wheat roll, 2 crisp pieces chicken toast.

Total calories, 1000. Protein, 25; fat, 52; carbohydrate, 520. Iron, .02 gram.

The breakfast planned for this day is a hot skimmed milk and toast breakfast. If your calorie allowance is less than 1100 it's much better to begin your day with even as light a breakfast as this than to go foodless until noon.

Fish in Piquant Sauce. Three pounds firm large fish, 3-4 cup vinegar, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons minced green pepper, 4 whole cloves, 1-4 teaspoon peppercorns, 1-8 teaspoon celery seed, 1-8 teaspoon whole mustard seed, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt.

Choose any sort of large firm-fleshed fish. Cut in "chunky" pieces and drop in boiling salted water. Reduce heat and let simmer until the flesh flakes away from the bone, about 10 minutes. Drain and remove bone and skin. Tie cloves, celery seed, mustard seed and peppercorns in a small cheesecloth bag. Add onion, pepper, sugar and vinegar to a casserole and pour over vinegar with spices removed. Cover casserole and put in a hot oven for 20 minutes. Serve from casserole.

Total calories, 1241. Protein, 107; fat, 55; carbohydrate, 106. Iron, .0045 gram.

EMPIRE STYLE

Nightgowns on the empire style are very attractive in pink white bordered with lace and tied with blue ribbons.

Six ounces orange juice, 1 cup boiled rice with 3 steamed and chopped figs, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1-2 cup cream, 3 slices French toast, 1 tablespoon butter, 5 tablespoons maple syrup, 1 cup clam broth, 4 tablespoons creamed spinach on buttered toast with 1 poached egg, 4 button radishes, 2 peanut butter sandwiches, 6 ounces fish in piquant sauce, 4 tablespoons beet greens with 1 tablespoon orange butter, 1-2 cup shredded cabbage with 2 tablespoons cream dressing, 2 cheese dreams, 4 tablespoons pineapple ice with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 2 macaroni, 1 toasted bread muffin, 3 toasted and buttered bread sticks, 2 whole wheat roll, 2 2-inch squares Johnny cake, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 pint whole milk.

Total calories, 4156. Protein, 45; fat, 150; carbohydrate, 1842. Iron, .021 gram.

Plenty of eggs should be used for the batter of the French toast. Season the mashed potatoes with cream instead of milk and lots of butter for the grating diet.

You will like the "cheese dreams" with the cabbage salad. They are nothing but cheese sandwiches toasted in a very hot oven. The toasted bread muffin is suggested for breakfast. It is the only food served requiring much effort to eat. One food needing real "chewing" should be included in every meal.

The fish can be well washed and cooked with the rice or steamed separately and added when the rice is half cooked.

The cream sauce for the spinach for this diet should be made of cream or rich milk with plenty of butter.

ENVELOPE BAGS

Envelope bags, very large and copiously fitted out, are of black mesh with a monogram of brilliant shade in the center.

SALAD GREENS A REAL TREAT

Season Brings Forth Interesting Variety

By MARY I. BARBER. Spring time is salad time—and what an interesting variety of greens this season brings forth. At the head of the list comes dandelion greens. These are a real treat because they are one of the few vegetables which still have a season. They should be used before they blossom as they become bitter after that time.

Dandelion greens have a flavor which acts on the appetite as a tonic. There are several ways of serving them. In Eastern Pennsylvania, dandelion is cut into cubes and the fat fried out. The fat is then mixed with flour and diluted vinegar is added. This sour dressing is poured over tender greens to "kill" them.

Dandelion greens may be placed in a kettle with a little water and boiled tender. They should then be drained, chopped coarsely and seasoned with butter, salt and pepper. Watercress is another popular salad green. Its slightly peppery taste gives character to any food with which it is served. It is particularly good with cod-fish balls.

Corn flakes can easily be rolled and used instead of dried bread or crackers for crumbing. They will give cod-fish balls an attractive color.

COD-FISH BALLS. 1 cup salt cod-fish, 4 cups sliced raw potatoes, 2 tablespoons milk, or cream, 1 egg (beaten), 2 tablespoons butter, pepper. Shred cod-fish, removing bones. Boil fish and potatoes until soft. Drain. Mash together; add other ingredients and beat until light. Shape into balls. Roll in corn flake crumbs, in egg, then in crumbs again. Fry in deep, hot fat. Serve fish balls on a platter and garnish with small bunches of water-creases and slices of lemon. If cod-fish balls are used for luncheon they may be accompanied by sliced cucumbers, or tomatoes, and by a variety of vegetables, such as beets, carrots, or squash. Hot mustard—brown or wheat—and a simple dessert will round out the meal.

SUMMER DRINKS

SHORE PUNCH. Mix two cups of grape juice with the juice of one lemon and one-half cup of sugar syrup. Add two pint bottles of gingerale and pour at once into glasses one-third full of cracked ice. Garnish with a thin slice of orange and serve at once.

EGG LEMONADE. For each glass beat one egg until very light and frothy. Add one or two tablespoons of sugar syrup, a tablespoon of cracked ice, the juice of one of the lemons and enough water to fill the glass. Mix thoroughly and serve with straw. A nourishing drink.

ROLEY SANDWICH. Spread Roquefort cheese mixed with Worcestershire sauce between two slices of rye bread.

RUFFLED SCARF. With the simple crepe frock is worn the scarf of the material which has deep ruffles of pleating on the edges.

BEACH CAPES. Beach capes of rubberized material are printed in futuristic patterns and cut on the lines dictated by fashion.

POULTRY. Fat Hens 25c per pound. Spring Frazers 50c per pound. Dressed and delivered free.

Edward Pessarra, Jr. 1825 5th St. Phone 2221-J

CIDER PUNCH. Mix two cups of sugar with half a cup of clear Sunkist lemon juice, one cup of clear grape juice, and put with one quart of grape juice and one quart of sweet cider. Stir well, pour into a pitcher half filled with cracked ice. When the mixture is well chilled turn out into glasses; makes nine glasses.

SUNKIST COLONIAL PUNCH. One-half cup Sunkist orange juice, one cup elder, quarter cup Sunkist lemon juice, one cup white grape juice, half cup sugar. Mix fruit juices, elder and sugar; stir well and pour over large pieces of ice; make eight large glasses, 24 punch glasses.

To Work Without Tiring

Caramel Pudding
4 cups milk, 5 eggs, one-half teaspoonful salt, 1 teaspoonful vanilla, one cup Diamond Star Sugar.

Heat milk in a double boiler and pour over the sugar. Beat the eggs in a frying pan until it is a deep rich brown. Add this carefully to the milk and eggs and return to the double boiler. Add salt and flavoring and cook until thickened like ordinary custard. This can be served in glasses or in a bowl. If desired it can be baked in the oven in a pudding dish. If baked it should be served with a plain caramel sauce, made by heating one-half cup of sugar, and adding one-half cup of boiling water. Boil and pour over serving.

Save this and watch for the next

Summertime is Picnic Time, With Its Invitation to Purling Streams, Shady Nooks

SAVORY DISHES QUICKLY FIXED

To Be Enjoyable, Must Be No Messy Menus

Picnic time is approaching and the housewife will do well to consider the menu.

And even before picnics are quite in order there is the Sunday night tea, and after tea, "bits," and other home occasions, when savory bits of ported meats and other delicacies lend themselves delightfully to the housewife's need.

Then, of course, there are the hot savories, the canapés and other introductory bits which usher in a more or less elaborate dinner; and the tempting hot dishes so easily done in the chafing dish, these also call loudly for the ported and tinned delicacies.

Luckily, the standard brands of these foods are numerous and absolutely reliable. The housewife may convert a tin of the old-time corned beef into hash that is superlatively good. And when the corned beef is not so considering as in one some accessories; that is, they are not the mainstay of the dietary. The necessary body-building and body-regulating foods are, let us say, already planned, therefore the choice ported and tinned delicacies are not so important, in addition to the dietary, it is true, in that they are wholesome and nourishing, but mainly interesting because of the zest added to an unusual occasion.

So to return to our savories.

Vary the corned beef hash by preparing a salad of the corned beef, mince the beef fine and mix with salad dressing, scoop out the centers of the tomatoes and fill with the corned beef mixture. Quickly prepared this salad is a sure-fire favorite.

Then there is the delicious ported meat loaf, real or chicken, which may be made into tempting sandwiches of served as a chafing dish dainty or with crackers, and one of the savory dishes that come in fascinating little bits.

Canning. Hot sausages served with scrambled eggs will appeal when on a hike; canapés are a favorite for dinners, as are canapés of peanut butter or smoked halibut, of canned shrimp or sardines and of oysters.

Can be as easy to "set into a rut" in planning these little "extra bits," and this is just by way of a hint that the store closet holds many a treasure in the shape of ported delicacies. In the old days we were apt to think of the ported ham, the ported tongue and what not as simple sandwich fillings, but the fact is that the study of possibilities of new combinations of these old-time favorites will be time well spent.

FLIGHT COMMANDER REACHES SHANGHAI

By United Press.
SHANGHAI, June 6.—Lieutenant Lowell Smith, commander of the United States Army round the world flight, arrived at noon today after a successful flight from Khabarovsk, Japan.

Lieutenants Nelson and Wade, who arrived yesterday, were waiting for the commander and greeted him affectionately as he came ashore from his plane.

Smith was delayed by an accident in the takeoff from Khabarovsk yesterday and could not proceed until he had completed minor repairs on his machine.

William J. Bryan Will Support McAdoo, He Avers

(Copyright, 1934, by United Press.)
NEW YORK, June 6.—William Jennings Bryan will vote for William U. McAdoo at the Democratic national convention and will not nominate Dr. A. A. Murphy, president of Florida University, as he originally announced.

Over the long distance telephone from Port Arthur, Ga., where he was last evening on route north, Bryan explained he is instructed for McAdoo and "will stay with him as long as he remains in the race."

"I deeply appreciate," he said, "the record vote given me by the people of Florida as delegate at large. I am glad I was instructed for McAdoo."

Declined to Talk

Informing that he was expected to seek a dry plank in the Democratic platform and make a fight for it, if necessary, Bryan declined to discuss his plans.

During a speech at Albany, Ga., yesterday, however, Bryan hoped he might help write the Democratic platform which, he said, would be "distinctly progressive." It is generally expected as certain that he will repeat at New York his dramatic fight at San Francisco four years ago for a dry plank. McAdoo, being absolutely dry, may find in the Commoner, the oratorical genius required to definitely turn the convention away from Governor Smith.

Colby Sealed Row

The debate at San Francisco between Bryan and Bourke Cockran, of New York on the wet and dry issue was one of the most remarkable incidents that ever transpired at a national convention. In fact so great was the demonstration Bryan stirred by his impassioned answer to Cockran's demand for a wet plank in the Democratic platform that Bainbridge Colby, shrewd, satirical and with great ability himself on the forum, was called upon to bring the delegates "back down to earth again."

He did it effectively—and the raging Commoner saw once more the passing of a situation when, for the moment, he held the multitude swaying in the palm of his hand.

His coming to the New York convention assures another dramatic day, for whatever may be the subject he selects—and it probably will be prohibition day—he will speak. There is no doubt that he will be a considerable influence if he so desires in behalf of McAdoo.

Mystified Politicians

It will be recalled that some months ago Bryan mystified political leaders by announcing he was going to nominate a Florida son if he was elected delegate to the convention. Later he announced that his candidate was Dr. Murphy, president of the University of Florida. Murphy issued a statement of appreciation of the honor—but that is as far as the boom went.

Recently McAdoo in a statement to the people of Florida expressed the hope that his friends would vote for Bryan as a delegate. Bryan received a tremendous vote in the primary Tuesday.

IN MEMORIAM

In many respects and for many reasons, the passing of George T. Craig in the prime of his manhood, is a grievous loss to his parents and family; a deplorable one to his business associates, and a distinct shock to the community in which he has for the past 27 years been a pronounced favorite. In his character was combined and exhibited practically all the elements of popularity: as a lover of outdoor sports he was always a central figure, and in their participation took keen enjoyment. Hunting, fishing, golf and tennis held ever for him a beckoning finger, and those of his associates mingling with him in these diversions ever found in him the true elements of sportsmanship. As a husband and father, son and brother, he was ever loving, kind, and dutiful; and as a sound level-headed business man, he demonstrated, after entering his business career, that for his age, he had but few equals.

To some, the foregoing may seem to be unduly eulogistic; but to the writer who has watched his boyhood and business career, covering the past 27 years, and has had opportunity to observe him in his various capacities, it seems but a plain truthful brief outline of his life history.

Sincerely submitted,
W. E. HALL.

SHORT LESSON IN CHEESE CHOICES

Is One of Most Highly Concentrated Foods

It would be impossible to compress within the limits of a short discussion the full story of the various standard cheeses.

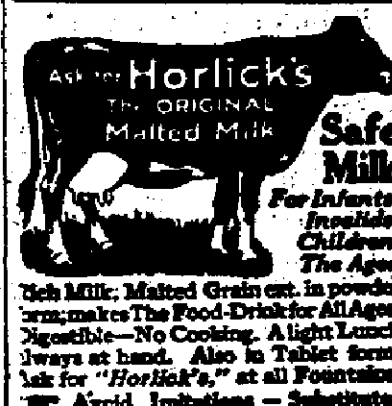

Merely to enumerate some of the varieties makes a story in itself. It is interesting, however, to know what the chief types are called.

A rough division of cheese is as follows: Soft cheese, such as Brie, Camembert, Gorgonzola, Limburg, Neuchâtel and Stilton. Second are the hard cheeses, such as Cheddar, Edam, Swiss, Parmesan and Roquefort.

Our own so-called American cheese is really Cheddar and should properly be called American cheddar.

The body-building portion of cheese is in the casein of the milk from which the cheese is made, and which during the ripening of the cheese has been changed somewhat, as would have been the case in the process of digestion. The fact that this body-building material of protein is present in such comparatively large portion in what makes the cheese a concentrated food, that it makes it possible for it to present a large share of nutritive material in a small compass.

No discussion of the nutritive value of any foodstuff would be complete without even mention of the ash or mineral content. Cheese has varying amounts of ash according to methods employed in the manufacture but it is fairly safe to assume that

DENQUE FEVER IS REPORTED IN TEXAS

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Texas, June 6.—Dengue fever is being reported to the Texas health department and state health officer Malone Duggan fears that it may again be a factor in the health of Texas people this summer. It cost the state approximately $3,000,000 last year. Like malaria and yellow fever, dengue fever is caused by the bite of a mosquito and it is conveyed in no other way. It is therefore, preventable and is simply a question of mosquito control by the individual homes and communities. Dr. Duggan said.

A resident of Chelsea, England, advised in a local paper for a "new end-hand" gray to hold two or more in some good cemetery.

ARE YOU SURE

That the ice you use in your refrigerator—that touches your food—that goes into the water you drink—are you sure it is PURE?

Scored ice, marked by our machines at the factory, is the purest ice you can buy. It is free from foreign matter and air streaks—so pure that you can READ A NEWSPAPER THROUGH IT.

But more than that, it is PURER THAN THE WATER YOU DRINK. Every germ is killed when the water is distilled. It must be clear, it must be pure, it must be full weight. The SCORED BORDER GUARANTEES IT!

Jones and Mehlhorn Are Tied For Lead

OAKLAND HILLS COUNTRY CLUB, DETROIT, Mich., June 6.—With Bobby Jones defending his title and Bill Mehlhorn of St. Louis in the lead, the contestants in the national open today started on the final 36 holes which will determine the championship.

Mehlhorn who established an early lead as a result of the morning round yesterday, was overtaken by Jones in the afternoon. The two were tied with a score of 147.

Right on their heels are Cyril Walker, Englewood, N. J., with 148; Bob Cruikshank, Westfield, N. J., and Dave Robertson, Redford, Mich., with 149 each. Walter Hagen, New York, and MacDonald Smith, San Francisco with 150 each; Abe Epifanio, San Francisco with 151; Mike Brady, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Tom Kerrigan, New York with 152.

Epifanio and Gene Sarazen both had good mornings, turning in a couple of 80's. Epifanio, however, rallied and came back in the afternoon with a 71, enough to put him among the leaders. Sarazen wound up the day with a tally of 154.

Johnny Farrell was another star who had his troubles for he shot 70 in the morning round and 76 in the afternoon.

BOY SPRINTER RACES CHAMPS

Young Frank Hussy On Edge for Run

NEW YORK, June 6.—Young Frank Hussy meets his big test tomorrow.

The Brooklyn school boy sprinter who has consistently broken "even" in competition and practice this spring will run in the 100 and 200 meter events at the eastern Olympic trials at Yankee Stadium.

For the first time in his career he will be meeting the champions, Loren Murchison, Jackson, V., Scholz, Loveloy, Leconer, sprinters who carved their niches in the hall of fame while Hussy still was in grammar school.

As school boy champion, young Frank never met anyone to extend him. And while athletic mentors kept him out of still indoor competition this past winter, bringing him along gradually so that some final touch-up by Larsen Robertson at Philadelphia has put the boy on edge for tomorrow's test.

Golluf—

UNCLE REMUS
BRITISH LIONS
PAGE BILL!
RECORD BUSTERS
BANG—UP BOY

WELL, as Uncle Remus would say, it's time to tell a bed-time yarn when a feller goes out to the golf course and loses a dozen good brand new dollar-an-a-quarter balls.

Which is awful, we'll admit, but the fact still remains that a special cord of care is gonna be appointed in the near future to keep track of the balls when Harry May is playing.

ACCORDIN' to a noted sports scribe, the British lion is in a snarly mood, whatever that is, and consequently invading golfers, such as Hagen, Sarazen, Kirkwood et al, had best be careful.

Old Ted Ray has returned to the zenith of his game and is said to be alleged to be playing perfect golf.

And now comes news of the remarkable golfer of one C. A. Whitcombe, who won the London Daily Mail trophy with a record-smashing score of 280.

MIGHT be well for Bill Crossland to investigate the fingers to see if they're correct.

But anyway, Whitcombe hadn't been strongly considered before, and he was from a powerful field, which is strutting his stuff just like Port Arthur plans to strut her's in the coming round of later City Golluf play.

Twice during the tourney, Whitcombe hit the course record, once with a 70 and then with a 69. And, boy howdy, that's gollufin'.

AND that reminds us that today there come burstin' through our mortal mail a missive from none other than Alonzo Dubb, erstwhile cent of golluf-dom, and this is what Dubb lauded:

"Seidin' as how you is always talkin' about 'Doc' Pindexter's score and game, and knowin' you don't know nothin' about what makes him so loud on th' course, just thought I'd drop you a line and let you know.

"It's his trousers. They make some noise, boy, some noise."

(Signed) A. DUBB.

BUT returning to th' subject interestin' to Bill Crossland and others, Whitcombe, this British chap, is no flash in the pan. Specially when you compare 'im with such fellers as Dick Sheeks, who is a shark.

But anyway, two years ago he was a bawdy contender for the title which Hagen brought back with 'im, and is likely to create a row this year. So look out, gang.

Well, G'by. Shut th' door from th' outside please, and don't make any racket, I'm sleepin'.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Mister Ringtail Coon came into the little store in the woods and walked up to the counter and said, "I would like to buy some party invitations, please, with pink edges and a picture on top."

"Here's the very thing, Mister Coon," said Nancy. "What are you giving, a birthday party or a dinner party?"

"Neither," answered Mister Coon. "I'm giving a radio party. I'm going to ask all my friends in to hear my new radio machine that I bought."

"That will be fine," said Nancy. "What are you going to say on your invitations?"

"Why, I thought maybe you'd help me with that," said Mister Coon. "You see, I am no great hand at writing. I sort of thought I'd begin this way: 'I take my pen in hand to ask you to—'"

"That's too old-fashioned," said Nancy. "Suppose you say, 'Mister Coon requests the pleasure of your company on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, R. S. V. P.'"

"Sounds pretty elegant," said Mister Coon. "But what does the R. S. V. P. mean? Refreshments served very promptly, I suppose."

"Oh, no," said Nancy. "It's French. It means to please send an answer right away."

And so it was arranged.

Nancy wrote all the invitations to Mister Coon's radio party, and Nick took them around.

When all the neighbors received invitations with pink edges and a picture on top and such fine words, there was a great flurry and commotion.

"I haven't a thing to wear!" called Mrs. Cracknuts out of her front window to Mrs. Benny.

"Me either," said Mrs. Benny. "I've worn my brown alpaca 'till the white spots to every mortal thing that's ever gone on. And the moths got into Ben's best trousers and I don't know what he's ever going to do."

"Oh, well," called Mrs. Squirrel. "I'm going to wear the new gray! I've worn for ages. So what's the difference. I got some new white lace for curtains, and I'll use it for ruffles instead. Ruffles are very fashionable, Mrs. Benny."

That's the way people were talking everywhere in the Green Woods about Mister Coon's party. For Mister Coon was quite a dude, and when people went to his house they liked to look their best.

Mister Coon's party was on the ground floor, for many of his guests, like the Bunbuns and the Ground Hogs and the Mud Turtles, never could have climbed his steep stairs.

Mister Coon was all dressed up in his best bid and tucker with a new striped necktie which exactly matched his tail.

He stood at the door and shook hands with all of his guests as they arrived. Nancy and Nick and Mister Bagg, the fairman, being the very last.

"Now we'll begin," said Mister Coon. "We will first hear some singing and a bedtime story from Chicago and then a band concert from San Francisco."

"Do tell!" exclaimed all the Green Woods people, settling themselves for a good time. "We're so glad you asked us, Mister Coon!"

"I'll tell you the rest about the party tomorrow."

NORTHMEN ATTACK PARIS

The Northmen were sometimes called Danes, sometimes vikings, sometimes Normans. They were fierce fellows, but a few of them knew how to write. Their words were made from "runes" or mystery letters.

One of the countries Northmen went to was Iceland. They liked it very well and many of them settled down. Much of what we know about the Northmen comes from what was written by Iceland settlers.

Other Northmen made their homes in Russia. For a long time, the kings of Russia were descended from them from Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

One bit of old Northman writing is as follows:

"The heroes from the north are well cared for. They cast dice and have plenty of money and good words. They are glad when they have hope of battle. They will leap up and ply their ears in hot haste, snapping the ear-strings and churning the water."

Their ships have scinning heads and carved beaks. They are filled with warriors and white shields. Such a ship is pictured. The Northmen were in the habit of rowing up rivers. They would land their boats on islands. When they saw a good chance, they would attack a nearby city.

At another time, seven hundred or more Northmen ships made an attack on Paris. You may remember that Paris was built on an island in the Seine. They couldn't capture the city by attack, so they tried to starve it out. This lasted for about a year.

The king of the Franks was then Charles the Fat. He became tired of having and Northmen around Paris all the while. He asked them if they would go away if he gave them a large sum of money. They agreed, got the money and left the city.

Billy Leans His "Part"

The very next day after Billy and Betty had come to their cousin's house to be ring bearer and flower girl at her wedding, they had a rehearsal.

Billy had to practice walking down the aisle of the quaint little church carrying a pillow. He had to walk very slowly, in time to music from the organ. Billy felt sort of silly, and he whispered to Betty that he didn't think being in weddings was so much fun after all.

"Just wait until tomorrow," Betty whispered back. "You'll ring bearer suit and my flower girl dress will be here. Then maybe you'll like it better when you get all dressed up."

Billy wears blue trousers and red hose, and an orange and black sweater and cap.

TO PREACH ON CHURCH MUSIC

Felderman Will Explain Creed of Christians

Of especial interest to all church congregations in Port Arthur is the subject, "Why the Christian Church Uses Instrumental Music in the Worship," on which Rev. R. R. Felderman will speak Sunday night at the First Christian church.

The message is being given by request and persons of other communions who are interested in the question are invited to attend. Rev. Felderman said today. A printed copy of the sermon will be given to each person desiring one.

Instrumental Quartette

A wind instrument quartet will give several special musical selections at this service, in addition to which there will be vocal numbers and congregational singing, he said.

In speaking of the Sunday school, Rev. Felderman stated that a strong effort will be made to bring the Bible school to average at least 400 in the Bible school during the summer months. The average for April was 468 and for May was approximately 400. Indications are that June will be a better month, as the number of attendance in the school, he stated.

Baptismal services will be conducted Wednesday night of next week following the prayer and praise service.

fourth of his body in the water." Recce on the discovery of the first body went at once to McFadden's beach where he found a car. He notified the telephone operator to call physicians and the coroner at Sabine Pass and started out on case for Sabine Pass.

Thought-Dead Girl Alive

Sanders and his two girl companions, the man having dragged the body of Sonnier from the water to the shore, started down shore in quest for more bodies. Proceeding some 200 yards the next body to be found was that of Mrs. Bonnette. Her body was near the shore, and the water was very shallow. She was found lying on her back, arms outstretched. About 10 feet from Bonnette's body was that of Miss Adele Montague.

Sanders said by this time he had dragged the four bodies back from the water one of the girls in his crowd had summoned residents on the beach and several other persons had gathered around.

Sanders said he thought when he first came up on the body of Miss Montague he saw her lips twitching slightly and that she was breathing.

"I rushed hurriedly to her and began to try to resuscitate her by forcing her back and forth after placing her on her face," Sanders said. "Only water emerged from her lungs and nostrils. In great quantities, and I knew then all chances of saving her life had gone and she was quite dead."

Sanders said by this time, about 45 minutes being expended in locating the bodies and pulling them from the water, he was in a very bad way. A number of persons from Sabine Pass and as well as residents of the beach were on hand. Granville's funeral car arrived soon thereafter and the bodies were brought to the city.

No Early Undertow

Asked to give his theory as to the cause of the tragedy, the man who discovered and dragged the bodies to land said he could offer nothing.

"I know that four of us hit the water hard this morning and went out further than we have before in a long time. The cause which killed the victims last night had evidently disappeared, for we were swimming at the identical place. It may have been an undertow as some have suggested. There was no evidence of this morning, though."

"The sea was rough and choppy this morning with the waves high. If they couldn't swim they got beyond their depth, probably. I can't offer any light on the thing occurred," Sanders said.

Houston Doctor Highly Recommends Merritone

Dr. E. V. Harriman, Prominent Houston Dentist, Reports Excellent Results From the Very First

"I had suffered for several years with stomach disorders and constipation," said Dr. E. V. Harriman, a prominent Houston dentist of 304-12 Main street, in talking to a Merritone man one day last week. "I tried many kinds of medicines without any results until about a year ago when I was induced to try Burck's Merritone."

In taking it I obtained excellent results from the very first dose. It relieved my stomach trouble and constipation right away and I am enjoying better health today than in years past.

People all over the country are talking about Merritone and the excellent results they are obtaining through taking this excellent reconstructive tonic.

Statements like that of Dr. Harriman come to us every day from people who have taken Merritone and are delighted with the quick results they have obtained.

Merritone is a powerful vegetable compound. It is made wholly of the juice of vegetables, roots and herbs. It acts as nature would have it act, gently but powerfully cleansing and toning up the entire digestive system purifying and enriching the blood, correcting constipation and irregular action of the kidneys and bladder.

It is a reconstructive tonic of unusual value that should be in every home.

Merritone is for sale in Port Arthur at The Houston Avenue Drug Store, American Pharmacy and The One Drug Store.—Adv.

SELF DEFENSE IS CLAIM IN BIG KILLING

Neighbors Testify Brown Was Defector To Them All When He Slew Enemies

Excitement was intense last night when a hurried call came to headquarters with a report that a killing had broken out in an exclusive neighborhood. Officers rushed to the scene and demanded an explanation.

Why Mr. Brown did it—and we are all shaking him for killing them, too," declared one of the women, in the center of the large crowd on the sidewalk. "We've been nearly tormented to death with flies, mosquitoes, roaches and ants, but Mr. Brown came home tonight with some Fly-Pla and said he was going to rid the whole neighborhood of these pests. He did it too, and I guess we forgot ourselves in our joy and made a lot of noise."

"Just look in our houses now and you won't find a one of those awful insects living. They are every one stone dead—and they are all going to die that come around again, now that we know what Fly-Pla will do."

Fly-Pla is certain death for every kind of insect on bug pest. Flies, Mosquitoes, Mosquitoes, Waterbugs, Ants, Fleas or the bugs and locusts that infect plants drop dead the minute they breathe it. Kills moths and their eggs. Yet it is absolutely harmless to humans or plants—is an excellent deodorant and cannot stain.

Price 50c for large bottle with handy sprayer, for druggists, grocers and general stores. Substitutes can't and won't do the work. Get genuine Fly-Pla and send the insect pest.
